

Sigatoka's Launchpad for Sporting Greatness

This is Lawaqa Park, Sigatoka's sporting legacy. Home to local rugby, soccer, and athletics, its history echoes with the roar of past matches. Notably, it's been the stage for the Coral Coast Sevens tournament, a breeding ground for Fiji's rugby sevens stars. Many national team players honed their skills here, making Lawaqa Park a vital part of Fiji's sporting narrative. It's where local talent takes root and national dreams begin.

Accessibility

Accessible by car, public transportation, taxi, or ride-sharing.